A PRIVATE INTRODUCTION

FOR PLANNERS & TRAVEL ADVISORS

Nantucket. Client photographs shared with permission.

Be there. Be together.
Let the story be remembered.

A family vacation. An anniversary journey. A celebration with the people who matter most. Robert travels alongside the family, capturing the adventure, the quiet moments, and everything in between.

A familiar presence. A trusted eye.

With more than three decades behind the camera, Robert brings a calm, easygoing presence to personal occasions. His wedding commissions include Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston, and Tom Cruise and Katie Holmes.

For one family, a wedding became sixteen years of vacations, celebrations, and watching their children grow. He remains their personal photographer today.

Your photographs and family life remain private. Images are shared only with your express permission.

Home again. There forever.

Personally designed books. Interior setting digitally styled.

Every travel commission includes a museum-quality book, personally edited and designed by Robert. Family photographs sit alongside the places and details that bring the journey back.

THE BOOK & PHOTOGRAPHS

The first book design is usually ready within two weeks of returning. The family reviews the story first, then receives the edited digital collection in a private, password-protected gallery. Offline delivery can be arranged.

Each 10 × 13-inch book is printed in the United States. Printing takes approximately four to six weeks after design approval. Additional copies can be ordered for family members or other homes.

PLANNING THE COMMISSION

A conversation with the family helps everyone feel at ease before the trip. Robert coordinates with the advisor, planner, or assistant on the itinerary, photography preferences, and travel arrangements.

Commissions are quoted individually, usually with a daily fee and a two- to five-day minimum, depending on travel. Travel days and expenses are included in the estimate. Dates are subject to availability.

Begin a private conversation.

Share the destination, dates, occasion, and a little about the family.
